Annual Report for 1959

During 1959 the Social Science Research Council moved to its new office in the Academy of Science Building, Gordon Street, Canberra City, and all formal meetings were held in the Academy Building.

The Chairman, Professor S. J. Butlin, the Secretary, Professor H. W. Arndt, and the Treasurer, Professor L. F. Crisp, were re-elected at the Annual Meeting of Council in June, 1959.

MEETINGS

The Executive Committee met on February 20, June 3, and November 3, 1959. The Research Committee met on November 2, and the Annual Meeting, at which office bearers were elected, was held on June 4. The Annual Meeting serves the valuable purpose of bringing together members of Council and giving them the opportunity for informal discussions as well as for the conduct of formal Council business.

MEMBERSHIP

Upon the recommendation of the Membership Committee and after a postal ballot, the following persons were elected to membership in July, 1959:—

Professor John Andrews, Department of Geography, University of Melbourne.

Sir John Crawford, Secretary, Commonwealth Department of Trade (Director-Designate, School of Pacific Studies, Australian National University).

Associate Professor N. D. Harper, Department of History, University of Melbourne.

Professor Duncan Howie, Department of Psychology, University of New England.

Professor G. H. Lawton, Department of Geography, University of Adelaide.

Professor R. L. Mathews, Department of Commerce, University of Adelaide.

Mr. R. S. Parker, Reader in Public Administration, Australian National University.

Professor D. C. Rowan, Department of Economics, University of New South Wales.

The resignation of Professor G. G. Firth, Department of Economics, University of Tasmania, was accepted with regret at the Council meeting in June.

RESEARCH AND PUBLICATION

Research Funds

The Carnegie Corporation greatly assisted the establishment of the Social Science Research Council and for five years to 1958 made a generous financial grant for research purposes. This grant has now expired and an approach was, therefore, made to the Commonwealth Government for an increase in its grant to meet the gap left by the ending of Carnegie assistance.

The Commonwealth Government raised the grant from £3,500 to £5,000 a year for three years. The Council is greatly indebted for this additional help. It will continue to explore the possibility of obtaining outside financial support for specific projects but as research in the social sciences does not appear to attract financial support from business as readily as does the more spectacular and less controversial research work of our colleagues in the physical sciences, it must, in the foreseeable future, depend upon Commonwealth Government support for the financing of its general range of work.

Individual Research Grants

An important function of the Council is to help individual scholars to pursue research projects of their own choosing. The Research Committee considered applications for research grants at a meeting on November 2 and, on their recommendation, the Executive approved five grants to a total of £1000. Another small grant of £100 had been awarded in June, 1959. One grant of £400 previously allocated will not be called on.

Details of the new grants, and payments made for individual research purposes during 1959, are given in Appendix I.

Role of Women Project

Much time and thought has been given to the planning and initiation of the major research project, The role of women in public and professional life in Australia, which is being sponsored by the Council.

Mr. Norman MacKenzie arrived from England with his wife and family in October to direct the project. His inquiry has already stimulated considerable interest in the question throughout Australia. Co-operation from many and varied sources which he is receiving in the compilation of the data necessary for the study is warmly appreciated. The Project Committee met on December 11 to discuss how it could best help Mr. MacKenzie.

Second Major Research Project

On the recommendation of Council, the Research Committee considered possible topics for a second major project and it is hoped that some suggestions will be put before the next meeting of Council in May, 1960.

Subsidies to Learned Journals

Learned journals constitute the main vehicle for publication of research in the social sciences. The Council, therefore, takes the view that it can make a real contribution by assisting the development of journals of quality whose circulation is for the time being insufficient to cover costs. A meeting with the Australian Humanities Research Council brought agreement on principles concerning applications for grants to journals which are likely to touch on the field of interest of both Councils. The Humanities Council agreed to take over responsibility for the Australasian Journal of Philosophy and Historical Studies in 1960. The Social Science Research Council approved a further small grant for 1959 for Historical Studies.

Details of grants to journals are shown in Appendix II.

Publication Assistance for Manuscripts

Several manuscripts were examined by readers appointed by the Council during the year but no publication grants were made. In one or two cases details of publication costs have yet to be submitted.

Copies of Conflict of Expansion and Stability, edited by Sir Douglas Copland and R. H. Barback, were presented to sixty-one Asian universities and institutes as a goodwill gesture.

Sales of books published with Council assistance have enabled publishers in some instances to repay subsidies in part or in full. Details will be found in Appendix III.

TRAVEL

During 1959 the normal travel facilities were provided for members of Council attending official meetings. However, with a growing membership and increases in fares and accommodation expenses, members this year were asked to meet some portion of their expenses involved in attending the Annual Meeting of Council. Further consideration will need to be given to the growing problem of the share of the Council's funds claimed by the expenses of the Annual Meeting.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS RESEARCH REVIEW

Professor K. F. Walker expects to submit his review on Industrial Relations Research early in 1960 when the question of publication will be considered.

BIBLIOGRAPHY OF RESEARCH IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES IN AUSTRALIA

Publication of a new bibliography is planned for 1961. Collection of data will begin early in 1960 and it is hoped that the co-operation of all social science departments will ensure good coverage of research being done.

Copies of the Bibliography of Research in the Social Sciences in Australia 1954-57 are still available from the office of the Council.

SILLIAC PROJECT

An appointment has been made of a research fellow for SILLIAC for one year beginning early in 1960. This project was supported by the Council and various Australian universities.

UNIVERSITIES THESES: DEPOSIT AND ACCESS

The memorandum concerning proposals for uniform rules on deposit of and access to university theses in Australian libraries was sent to Australian universities and discussed at a meeting of university librarians. The Council feels that its main objective has been achieved and that further action should be left to the university librarians.

REPRESENTATION AT MEETING OF INTERNATIONAL SOCIOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

Professor W. D. Borrie represented the Council at the Fourth World Congress of Sociology at Stresa.

FINANCE

Detailed financial statements, certified by the Honorary Auditor, Mr. P. W. Brett, Accountant of Canberra University College, are set out in Tables I, II, and III.

Rules of the Social Science Research Council of Australia Incorporated

(as adopted at Council Meeting in Canberra on June 6, 1957)

1. NAME

The name of the Association is the Social Science Research Council of Australia Incorporated hereinafter described as the Research Council.

2. OBJECTS

(1) The objects of the Research Council are

- (i) to encourage the advancement of the social sciences in Australia;
- (ii) to act as a co-ordinating group for the promotion of research and teaching in the social sciences;
- (iii) to foster research and to subsidise the publication of studies in the social sciences;
- (iv) to encourage and assist in the formation of other national associations or institutions for the promotion of the social sciences or any branch of them;
- (v) to act as the Australian national member of international organizations concerned with the social sciences; and
- (vi) to act as consultant and adviser in regard to the social sciences.

(2) The Association is not formed or carried on for purposes of trading or securing pecuniary benefit to its members.

3. MEMBERSHIP

(1) The Research Council consists of those persons who at the time of its incorporation were members of the Social Science Research Council of Australia and of persons subsequently elected in accordance with these Rules.

(2) (a) Persons who are deemed to have achieved distinction in one or more branches of the social sciences may be elected to membership of the Council if

- (i) they are nominated by one member and seconded by two other members and
  - (ii) they are recommended by the Membership Committee after investigation of their eligibility and
  - (iii) they receive the support of a majority of the members for the time being at a postal ballot.
- (b) On the unanimous recommendation of the Executive Committee and by a majority of those present at a general meeting the Research Council may elect honorary members from time to time and for such periods as it thinks fit. The number of honorary members shall not at any time exceed five and such honorary members shall be eligible for election to any office other than that of Chairman and to membership of any Committee.
- (c) (i) The Research Council has power to admit to associate membership persons who are working in or studying one or more branches of the social sciences but who are ineligible for membership under sub-rule 2(a).
- (ii) The number of associate members is limited to such number as the Research Council in general meeting from time to time determines.
- (iii) Persons deemed eligible under clause 2(c) (i) of this Rule may be elected to associate membership if
- (a) they are nominated by one member and seconded by two other members and
  - (b) they receive the support of an absolute majority of the members for the time being at a postal ballot.
- (iv) Associate members are not entitled to attend general meetings of the Research Council but may attend lectures, addresses, and seminars organized or conducted by the Research Council except when the Executive Committee decides to limit admission to members.
- (v) Associate members are entitled to receive copies of the Research Council's publications on the same terms as members.
- (3) (i) Members pay an annual subscription to be fixed from time to time by members at a general meeting.

- (ii) Associate members pay an annual subscription of such amount as the Executive Committee determines not being more than one-half of the subscription payable by members.
- (iii) If the subscription of a member or associate member is unpaid for twelve months after the due date he is deemed to have resigned his membership or associate membership.

4. GENERAL MEETINGS

- (1) A general meeting of the Research Council is held at such time and place as the Executive Committee determines but not more than two years may elapse between general meetings.
- (2) A quorum for a general meeting of the Research Council is one-third of the number of members.
- (3) The Research Council has power at a general meeting to do all things which it deems necessary for the advancement of its objects and of which notice appears on the agenda.
- (4) Members are entitled to fourteen days' notice of the time and place and agenda of all general meetings.
- (5) The Research Council has power at a general meeting to change these Rules but
  - (i) twenty-eight days' notice of any proposed change must be sent or given to the Secretary,
  - (ii) the terms of every proposed change must be sent to all members with the notice of the meeting, and
  - (iii) no change shall be made unless assented to by a majority of the members and such assent shall be signified either at the meeting or by a postal ballot held after the meeting.

5. OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

- (1) The Research Council in general meeting elects a chairman a secretary and a treasurer who hold office until the next general meeting.
- (2) The chairman of the Research Council is ex officio chairman of the Executive Committee and of the Finance Committee.

- (3) The Executive Committee consists of the chairman the secretary the treasurer and five other members elected by the general meeting and has power subject to these Rules to act on behalf of the Research Council in all matters (other than the election of new members of the Research Council) unless the Research Council in general meeting otherwise directs.
- (4) The Membership Committee consists of five members of the Research Council who are elected in general meeting and hold office until the next general meeting.
- (5) If the chairman is unable to attend any meeting of the Executive Committee or of the Finance Committee the other members of the respective Committee elect one of their number to be chairman of that meeting.
- (6) The Executive Committee is responsible for sending to all members of the Research Council
  - (i) a copy of the minutes of its meeting and
  - (ii) not less than twenty-one days before a general meeting a copy of the annual reports and financial statements.

6. FINANCE

- (1) The Finance Committee consists of the chairman of the Research Council the treasurer and two other members who are elected by the Research Council in general meeting provided that any two members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum.
- (2) The Finance Committee is empowered to make recommendations to the Research Council and to the Executive Committee as to the expenditure of the funds of the Research Council.
- (3) The functions of the Finance Committee include the following —
  - (i) To investigate ways and means of increasing the funds of the Research Council.
  - (ii) To ensure that all moneys received by or belonging to the Research Council are paid into such bank account or accounts as it thinks fit to open in the name of the Research Council and to authorise one or more of its members either separately or jointly to sign and endorse cheques on behalf of the Research Council.

- (iii) To invest all moneys of the Research Council not otherwise required for the purposes thereof in such securities and in such manner as it thinks fit and from time to time to vary or realise such investments.
  - (iv) To make on behalf of the Research Council all payments authorised by or under these Rules and for that purpose to convert into money any property whatsoever owned by the Research Council and legally available for the purpose for which the payments are to be made.
  - (v) To pay out the moneys of the Research Council whenever directed to do so by a resolution of the Executive Committee which is communicated to it in writing signed by the chairman and by the secretary or treasurer.
- (4) If so authorised by a resolution of the Executive Committee communicated in the manner described in clause (3) (v) of this Rule the Finance Committee is empowered to transfer from time to time such sum as the resolution may specify into a special bank account in the name of the Research Council which account may subject to such conditions as the Executive Committee may specify be operated upon by such members of the Council as the resolution may direct.

7. SEAL

The Seal of the Research Council shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a resolution of the Executive Committee and in the presence of at least three members of the Executive Committee including either the chairman or secretary and those three members as aforesaid shall sign every instrument to which the Seal of the Research Council is so affixed in their presence.
