

View of part of the town of Parramatta, in New South Wales, copper engraving by William Preston after John Eyre. Parramatta, or Rose Hill as it was originally called, was established in 1788 as a farming settlement to supply Sydney with grain. By 1812, when this engraving was published, it was a thriving village.

NATIONAL LIBRARY

PLACES

A HISTORICAL ACCOUNT OF AUSTRALIAN PLACES

NEW SOUTH WALES

- 1 The Central West
- 2 The Darling and Far West
- 3 The Hunter Valley and North Coast
- 4 New England and the Northwest Slopes
- 5 The Riverina
- 6 The South Coast and Southern Tablelands
- 7 The Sydney Region

NORTHERN TERRITORY

- 8 Alice Springs and the Centre
- 9 Darwin and the North Coast

QUEENSLAND

- 10 Brisbane and the Southeast
- 11 The Central Coast
- 12 The Darling Downs
- 13 The Gulf Country and Cape York Peninsula
- 14 The North Coast
- 15 The West Central Region

SOUTH AUSTRALIA

- 16 Adelaide and the Southeast
- 17 Eyre and Yorke Peninsulas
- 18 The Northern Region

TASMANIA

- 19 Hobart and the Southeast
- 20 Launceston and the Northeast
- 21 The Northwest and West Coast

VICTORIA

- 22 The Central Highlands
- 23 Gippsland
- 24 The Melbourne Region
- 25 The Northeastern and North Central Region
- 26 The Western District
- 27 The Wimmera and Mallee

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

- 28 The Kimberleys
- 29 Murchison and the Eastern Goldfields
- 30 Perth and the Southwest
- 31 The Pilbara and Gascoyne
- 32 The Wheatbelt and Central Coast